Woof, Woof, Woof,

Woof, Woof, woof, woof, woof

Woof

OK, now in human language,

Thank you, Dr. Jim, for fixing my neck! It was hurting so bad and the vet couldn't do anything for me. He was talking about surgery – can you imagine!? I'm so glad he said something about a pinched nerve and Momma & Daddy thought about you! As you can see from the picture below, I can cock my head just fine with no pain. Thank you, Dr Jim!!

Love, Lucky
