Hey James/Jim/Doctor Fiore,

I never know what to call you. Attached are some photos from the Mud Run in Lake Elsinore on 9/21/2013. A year ago I was doubled over from the low back pain and could barely sit in a chair. Who knew that I'd be competing in 5K mud runs less than a year later and having a blast! Thanks for all help and healing. I am truly grateful for it.

Very sincerely,

Chad Keller

PS - Kind of gave you a before and after shot. :)
